".gnorts worg ,lla ta worg yeht fi ,seert yratiloS"

Once upon a time there was a little holy toad. She played in crickle-crack trees too much, or something. That made her special, or nothing. She passed too much time watching the unholy untoads go forwards, backwards. She had nightmares about their 3-walled cells: one wall on the right, one wall on the left, and one wall straight ahead. So, she goulashed in a four-walled cell. Her anatomy became all-wrong. Her eyeballs peed and she coddled capsules . . . but, watching the sunless sunup, she recalled the verb "to coin" and decided to sing in the rain. Razmataz came after that.

To Chris and the Class of 2001

SUCCESS
To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a little bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

Hickey's overtime goal puts Cohasset laxers in EMass championship versus Hingham

By Terry Kahn
SPECIAL TO THE MARINER

The coach called it legendary. The fans termed it unbelievable. The Cohasset boys' lacrosse team wrote a new chapter in the history of Cohasset High School athletics, coming from six goals down with eight minutes to play to tie Ipswich in the final 32 seconds. The seventh seeded Skippers then went on to upset their third-seeded hosts in the fourth overtime of the state Div. 2 semi-final, 12-11.

Facing an 11-5 deficit four minutes into the fourth quarter, on the road, in muggy 85-degree heat, the Skippers launched a comeback that stunned everyone except the 23 members of a varsity squad that hadn't even qualified for post-season play since 1997.

Girls lacrosse team improves to 7-5-1, moves to within one won of tourney berth

The Cohasset girls varsity lacrosse team improved their record to 7-5-1 over the past week, keeping their chance to make the state tournament very much alive. After suffering a tough 10-9 loss on the road against Falmouth, the Lady Skippers bounced back with solid victories at home against Barnstable Thursday night and Monday afternoon at Marshfield.

Cohasset baseball team sweeps doubleheader over South Shore Tech

By David Ingber
CORRESPONDENT

After a season opening loss, the Cohasset baseball Skippers pulled their record above .500 with two wins in a double header over South Shore Voc Tech.

In the opener, se[illegible] Grassey hurled a complete game one-hitter, as Cohasset jumped out and stayed on top for the 9-1 win. Grassey also tallied 11 strikeouts in the seven innings, his first start of the year.

Senior captain shortstop TJ Bilodeau pounded out three doubles in three at bats, while junior catcher Tim Straughn went 4-for-4 with a double and a triple.

Cohasset High tennis star Grossman continues to rip through competition

Girls tennis report

Meanwhile, back in Cohasset, the girls team improved to 5-0 with their win over the Green Wave, and this one was never in doubt.

First singles player sophomore Lindsay Grossman continued her domination of her opponents with a 6-0, 6-1 shellacking. Grossman effectively combined power with grace. She has yet to have her serve broken this year.

Tennis team overcomes absences to take big league win over Norton

By James Olson
CORRESPONDENT

The Cohasset boys' tennis team evened their record at 1-1 this past Tuesday with a 4-1 thrashing of Norton.

The only loss of the match for the Skippers was the forfeited third singles spot due to the absence of several key team members.
